

Booking terms and conditions

- 1 It is understood that Ben Blackall has been retained as the exclusive official photographer for the wedding in question.
- 2 A deposit of £150.00 is required. Receipt of the completed booking form and deposit confirms the contract of photography. All cheque payments to be made payable to: BEN BLACKALL.
- 3 In the event of postponement or cancellation of the wedding or this contract, the booking fee paid is none refundable.
- 4 In the event of serious injury, incapacitating illness or other gross misfortune preventing Ben Blackall from attending your wedding, every attempt will be made to acquire another photographer of equal experience, but should this prove unsuccessful Ben Blackall shall be liable only for the return of monies paid.
- 5 The copyright will remain with Ben Blackall, who also reserves the right, subject to the clients' approval, to use the images there from for display, promotional and all other purposes, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Ben Blackall hereby grants you the perpetual right to use, reproduce and distribute the copyrighted Work for personal non-profit purposes.
- 6 In order to maintain the highest image quality possible, images that have not been Photoshopped will not be released.
- 7 Due to the technical limitations of the photographic process, exact colour matches within a subject cannot be guaranteed.
- 8 Although Ben Blackall shall exercise all reasonable skill, care and diligence with regard to exposure, production and delivery of the photographs, in the unlikely event of any unforeseen circumstances resulting in the loss of photographic record the photographer will only be responsible for the return of monies paid.
- 9 Payment in full is required upon the wedding images being posted online. Delivery of the photographic prints will be made once payment is received.
